What is the Boost?

The Boost consists of a contribution of 5% of the GST inclusive price for the Building Works under the Building Contract excluding the cost of any variations (Build Price) subject to a maximum amount of $25,000 (inclusive of GST) (Boost) to be paid by the Promoter (or its nominee) directly to the Builder. For example if the Build Price is $480,000, the Boost will be $24,000; if the Build Price is $550,000, the Boost will be $25,000 (noting that 5% of the Build Price would be $27,500 but the Boost is capped at $25,000). The Boost is non-transferable, non-exchangeable and not redeemable for cash.

How to redeem the Boost

The vendor under the Contract of Sale (Vendor) will pay the Boost to the Nominated Builder on the last day of the month which is after the later of 28 days after settlement of the Contract of Sale and 14 days after receiving a valid tax invoice from the Builder. The Purchaser must ask the Builder to provide a valid tax invoice for the Boost to the Vendor. The Vendor is not required to pay the Boost until it has received such invoice.

The Boost will be paid as a contribution towards the deposit payable under the Building Contract. The Purchaser is responsible for the Build Price less the Boost paid by the Vendor to the Builder (Build Balance) and the Purchaser must pay any instalments in respect of the Build Deposit and the Build Balance in accordance with the terms of the Building Contract (including any instalment not fully paid by the Boost).

The Purchaser will only be entitled to the Boost if: (1) it effects settlement on the due date for settlement as set out in the particulars of sale to the Contract of Sale (Due Date) and has otherwise complied with its obligations under the Contract of Sale; and (2) the Building Contract is in existence at settlement and the Purchaser has complied with its obligations under the Building Contract. Nothing in these Terms and Conditions detracts from the Vendor's rights against the Purchaser in the event that the Purchaser fails to effect settlement of the Contract of Sale on the Due Date, including the Vendor's right to claim penalty interest from the Purchaser in accordance with the Contract of Sale.
